As our long-term development partner, Woodside has been the Development Partner of Yirra Yaakin through a new digital program.

In 2018, Woodside acknowledged and celebrated the achievements of Yirra Yaakin over the past 25 years. During NAIDOC week, Woodside hosted a Yirra Yaakin live stream event, supporting their continued relevance and innovation, through a new digital program. Woodside has been the Development Partner of Yirra Yaakin since 2002, sponsoring new works annually and programs to foster emerging artists and writers.

Woodside has been the Development Partner of Yirra Yaakin since 2002, sponsoring new works annually and programs to foster emerging artists and writers. Woodside has been a supporter of this innovative program for seven years, to build capacity of Aboriginal arts workers in the professional theatre sector.

In 2018, Woodside pledged support as the inaugural sponsor of the Noongar Shakespeare Project. The Sonnets in Noongar project is a world-first, providing students a literary introduction to the Noongar language through the lens of Shakespeare’s sonnets. As an extension of the Sonnets project, Yirra Yaakin commenced development of a full-length Noongar retelling of Shakespeare’s Macbeth, planned to premiere in 2020.

and here we are trying to carry that dream forward.

My dream is to see the young leaders standing as co-design a culturally responsive parenting and family support Partnership Initiative (WAUPI).

The collective result of the work of the Community Navigators is the (establishment of the) Community Empowerment regional leadership group and the steering committees is driving community and community. They are guiding the project, influencing change and with the role of carrying out authentic community engagement.

The project is establishing itself as the key platform and pilot for the future.

OPPORTUNITIES

North West Alliance contract

Providing meaningful contractual opportunities to Indigenous businesses, is a power that Woodside can increase the return to Indigenous people and communities existing from our business activities.

The Woodside Development Fund continues to take forward the process of delivering over a $300M commitment to the Indigenous communities nationally.

In 2018, Woodside has continued to direct its North West Alliance (NWA) 35% Indigenous owned joint venture (JV) into the Kimberley. The NWA boasts significant local Indigenous engagement.
